[FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE OUTSIDE PAGES.]

CITY COUNCIL.—The regular meetings of City Council were held yesterday afternoon, their regular day. There was a very limited lobby attendance. Until the weather begins to prove nipping the lobbies will not be attractive to the crowd that gathers there in winter. The business transacted there yesterday was this:—

Settlement Council.—Mr. Sprigg, President, was in the chair. A batch of communications relative to paving and grading, gas and water facilities, took the usual reference to committees.

A resolution authorizing certain transfers in the items of appropriation to the Board of Finance, authorizing a number of transfers in the items of appropriation for the year to the Department of Markets, Wharves, and Landings.

Mr. King opposed the ordinance, entering a formal protest against such transfers. He took the ground that such application was only another way of striking for additional appropriation.

The bill passed finally. A resolution changing the name of Armistead street, Germantown, to Locust avenue, was finally passed.

A resolution authorizing certain transfers in the items of appropriation to the Board of Health was introduced. Some of the items were for necessary improvements to the Municipal Hospital, concerning the necessities of which Mr. Block made an exhaustive exposition.

The Chamber of Commerce, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

Mr. Colman explained that the Nicolson pavement was about to be laid there, and that true economy suggested the previous laying of this footway of uniform width.

It was referred to a committee, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

Mr. Bumm offered a resolution of instruction to the Chief Commissioner of Highways to permit the Philadelphia and Baltimore Steamship Company to erect a structure on the first wharf above Arch street.

Mr. Colman explained that the Nicolson pavement was about to be laid there, and that true economy suggested the previous laying of this footway of uniform width.

GRANT MEETINGS.—A meeting of Republican citizens was held last evening at 712 Passywnok Road, for the purpose of organizing a Grant Club, James H. Meigs presided and Joseph H. Lyndall acted as Secretary. Mr. Adams suggested that the meeting was premature, and there should be a more public call. He moved that a committee of three be appointed to engage Odd Fellows' Hall, Tenth and South streets, for an adjourned meeting, to form a campaign club. The motion led to considerable discussion, in the course of which it was urged many would not take any candidate, but that there should be a campaign club which could support whoever may be nominated by the National Convention. On the other side it was contended that General Grant's position as President, and his Republicanism, were endorsed by men who are in a position to be informed. The motion to appoint a committee to secure Odd Fellows' Hall was agreed to, and the meeting adjourned to meet at the call of the committee.

A meeting of the citizens of Eleventh Ward favorable to the nomination of U. S. Grant for the Presidency was held last evening, at the public house, corner of St. John and Buttonwood streets, for the purpose of forming a Grant Club. James H. Meigs was appointed President, and Colonel James Brady was appointed Secretary. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions looking to a permanent organization. Resolutions endorsing General Grant for the Presidency, recommending the formation of a Grant Club, and adopting after remarks from several of the gentlemen, the meeting, on motion, adjourned until next week.

CELEBRATION OF A GOLDEN WEDDING.—The prominent members of the Young Men's Christian Association, learning that Abraham Martin, the oldest Sunday School advocate in the city, was about to celebrate the fifth anniversary of his wedding, invited him to be present last evening at a special meeting of their hall, Chesnut street, above Twelfth. Mr. P. R. Simon, President of the Association, presided, and the proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Newton, Rector of the Church of the Epiphany. The Rev. Dr. Newton, in his address, congratulated the bride and groom, and then, by Dr. Newton, George H. Stuart, Matthew Newkirk, William G. Crowell, John Wanamaker, Mr. Godfrey, and others. Presentations were made during the evening to Mr. Martin of a beautiful clock, with gold dollars, from the employees of the Sunday School Union, and a handsome amount of money, besides many articles of value. The presentations were acknowledged by Mr. Martin in a brief address. The company then withdrew to the upper hall, where a collation was served up. A large number of ladies were present.

THE COLORED BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—Last evening the W. Walters Benevolent Union League held their first grand anniversary at Masonic Hall, South Eleventh street. At an early hour the exercises were commenced, a very respectable audience being in attendance. The exercises were opened by the Delmonico Brass Band playing a variety of their most excellent and popular airs, under the direction of their leader, James Walters, Esq., P. A. Hall, Rev. Elisha Weaver, Stephen Smith, and Rev. J. A. Williams. Not the least attractive feature of the occasion was the table of refreshments well filled with a choice variety of the good and reasonable dainties of life, and so well adapted to the proper felicitations of the inner man. The Walters Benevolent League promises to be no inconspicuous association in the many other social and benevolent associations which are doing honor to this city, and considering the object they have in view, we wish them great success.

THE PARK COMMISSION.—A special meeting of the Park Commission was held, at which the resolution fixing the boundary lines of the Park was adopted. The report of the Commission was presented, and the Commission will pay an official visit to the Park on Wednesday next.

AMUSEMENTS.—The Academy of Music, Madison Avenue, Philadelphia, offers an extraordinary bill for her far-out evening performance and benefit in this city. She will to-night assume the character of the persecuted Helene in Medea, and will also appear as "Lady Macbeth" in the last act of Shakespeare's Macbeth, in which occurs the famous "Sleep-walking Scene." To-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, only Ristolette matinee, and her last appearance in this city. Marie Antoinette will be given entire.

ESQUER OPERA.—Next week the Richens English Opera Troupe will take possession of the Academy of Music, opening on Monday evening with the Bohemian Girl.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—Benefit of Mr. James B. Roberts. A splendid bill is offered, embracing the Iron Chest and the Corsican Brothers, in both of which Mr. Roberts appears, supported by the entire stock company.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Nobody's Daughter, the successful novelty, will be presented again to-night for the benefit of Miss Kate Reingolds, whose acting in her great triple part is very much admired. On Monday evening, November 4, Miss Olive Logan's new American comedy of Narr is to be produced, with new scenery, and Mrs. John Drew as the heroine.

AT THE CHESTNUT, Mrs. D. P. Bowers will play Mary Stuart to-night for her benefit. The play will be followed by a pleasant farce.

AT THE AMERICAN THEATRE the usual variety entertainment will be given this evening.

FORFAUGER'S Grand Circus, 155 HESSAUGER is exhibiting the most exciting thing yet seen to-morrow afternoon, at the Central Skating Park, Fifteenth and Wallace streets.

CARNCROSS & DIXEY still present their Harrah Trip Around the World to immense audiences. They also present several comical farces and burlesques every evening.

CARL SENZ's next orchestral and vocal matinee will be given at Horticultural Hall next Thursday afternoon.

AT THE ASSEMBLY BUILDINGS the mammoth Stereopticon may now be seen. It is well worthy of a visit.

MR. HABELMANN'S OPERATIC CONCERTS IN COSTUME.—A great number of persons have requested the repetition of the admirable concert given by Mr. Habelmann and his excellent assistants; and he announces subscription lists to be open for a series of four, to be given at convenient intervals. Some new artists are engaged, and an efficient orchestra, under Carl Senz, is secured. Mr. Jean Louis is stage manager and chorus master.
